Summer is finally here

Phoebe Christofi

WE DON'T know about you, but our calendar for the summer season is starting to look pretty jam-packed. If you're visiting the island and you don't have too many things booked in, fear not, as there's a plethora of activities and events just waiting for you.

I explore a few ways to escape the heat this summer, as well as utilising the day to its full potential by taking advantage of dusk as a gateway for activities.

Journalists Cathy Matthews and Emily Gibbs guide us through the nostalgia of road trip snacks and how to craft the best road trip playlist, while Nicki Davey writes about the beauty of a farmers' market. We walk you through some of the summer festivals, as well as how to make the most of them - remember, a festival day is a marathon, not a sprint!

And how could we forget - it's the most wonderful time of the year! With Christmas fast approaching, don't let the travelling stand in your way of celebrating with your loved ones, or with friends, old and new. There are so many opportunities around the island for you to gather and soak up the festive cheer.

... there's a plethora of activities and events just waiting for you.

Travelways is made on lutruwita (Tasmania) Aboriginal land. We acknowledge the traditional owners of this land, the palawa people.
